Session 1: Personal Error Analysis & Self-Introduction

Name:
Harini (2620030050)

Part A: Self-Introduction, Before and After

Before (first draft; flagged items in red)

Hello everyone! I am Harini from KLH Bachupally and its a pleasure to be a part of this team. I am a hardworking, punctual and I like teamwork. In my Java class, I had learnt the basics and I have been completing the assignments regularly. Everyone says that I am a good listner and and I try to solve conflicts peacefully. Although I am new to team projects, but I am excited. I will try my best to give my 100% to the team.

After (corrected for clarity, register and concision)

Hello everyone, I'm Harini from KLH Bachupally, and it's a pleasure to join this team. I'm hardworking and punctual, and I enjoy teamwork. I have learned the basics of Java in class and complete my assignments regularly. People often tell me I'm a good listener, and I try to resolve conflicts calmly. Although I'm new to team projects, I'm excited to contribute and will do my best.

Part B: AI Accuracy Check, Flagged Items and Rules in My Own Words

Flagged text	Type	Rule (my own words)	Correction
its a pleasure	Apostrophe	"It's" is short for "it is", while "its" shows possession. I test by expanding it.	it's a pleasure to be a part of this team	Wordiness	"To join" says the same thing in fewer words.	to join this team
I am a hardworking, punctual and I like teamwork	Parallel structure	Items in a list must have the same grammatical shape, and "a" cannot stand alone before adjectives with no noun.	I'm hardworking and punctual, and I enjoy teamwork
I had learnt	Tense	Past perfect needs an earlier past moment to refer to. For learning that still matters now, I use present perfect.	I have learned have been completing the assignments	Wordiness	A simple present with "regularly" already shows a habit.	complete my assignments regularly
Everyone says	Overgeneralisation	Absolute words like "everyone" cannot be proven. "People often" is accurate and more modest.	People often tell me
listner	Spelling	The agent form of listen is listener, with -er after the full verb.	listener and and	Repeated word	A doubled word is a typing slip that is easy to miss when rereading quickly.	and
Although I am new to team projects, but	Double conjunction	"Although" already signals contrast, so adding "but" duplicates it.	Although I'm new to team projects, try my best to give my 100%	Idiom, redundancy	"Try my best" and "give 100%" say the same thing, and 100% does not take "my". One phrase is enough.	will do my best

Part C: Personal Error Log

Recurring error	Rule	Example	How I will catch it its vs it's	"It's" means it is or it has. "Its" shows ownership. I can expand and see if the sentence still works.	its a pleasure -> it's a pleasure	Expand every it's/its to "it is" and test.
Parallel lists	Items in a list should share a grammatical form, so the reader can follow the pattern.	hardworking, punctual and I like -> hardworking and punctual, and I enjoy	Read the list aloud and compare the items.
Tense choice	Past perfect (had learnt) needs another past event. For something that still affects now, I use present perfect.	had learnt -> have learned	Ask: is there an earlier past moment in this sentence?
Doubled words and spelling slips	Slips come from typing fast and reading what I meant, not what I wrote.	and and -> and; listner -> listener	Proofread slowly, one sentence at a time.
Double conjunctions	Pairs like although...but say the contrast twice. One connector per contrast is enough.	Although..., but -> Although...,	Underline every connector and keep one per idea.

Part D: Reflection

1. I knew the its/it's rule, but I still typed it wrongly; that tells me my slips are habits, not knowledge gaps.

2. The parallel-structure and past-perfect flags surprised me, as I had never noticed them in my own writing.

3. I will read each list aloud and check the tense of every sentence before I send anything.